

CAMP RUBBER SOUL

Camp Rubber Soul is a non-profit organization established to provide a recreational outlet for children and young adults with special needs.

After a successful day camp program in the summer of 1990, a group of supporters banded together to offer an ongoing program of overnight nature outings. This year we are able to offer four one week fun-filled overnight camps.

Funded by donations from interested community members and businesses, Camp Rubber Soul is providing a camping experience on the beautiful Mendocino Coast to children from all over California and beyond.

The cost for each camper starts at $900. per one week overnight camp. Additional fees may apply depending upon the needs of the child. Regional Center funding is often available and there is a sliding scale and a limited number of camperships.

For further assistance regarding funding or information about the camp, contact Rachel Miller or Sayre Statham at 707-962-0906.

Nature/Art Program

We will spend 6 days and 5 nights at the Mendocino Christian Camp, 1 mile north east of Albion, a beautiful spot that was specially designed for wheelchair use.

Activities will include arts & crafts, sports, wood working, painting, theater, exploration of the coast, music and T-shirt design.

From the campsite we will take outings to the beach, local State Parks, the Botanical Gardens and other points of interest in the community.

Children will be exploring the tidepools, eating under the redwoods, playing at the beach, learning about animals and nature and having lots of fun! Join us!

Saturday will be Family Day with a BBQ picnic. Please join us for this celebration. RSVP on day of registration.
